

17 September 1971

Colonel Leslie B. Hardy
Secretary, The National War College
Department of Defense
Washington, D. C. 20315

Dear Colonel Hardy:

This is in response to Colonel Dalton's letter of 16 August 1971 to Colonel White regarding his visit to the National War College on Monday, 18 October. Unfortunately, Colonel White will be out of the city on that date and will be unable to make the presentation. I therefore plan to give the briefing on the Agency in his place. I shall use essentially the same format the Agency has followed in previous years; that is, I shall be accompanied by the four functional Deputy Directors: Dr. Edward Proctor and Messrs. Thomas Karamessines, Carl Duckett, and John Coffey. I shall arrive at 0900 and shall make a number of general remarks with which the Deputies are familiar. The Deputies will arrive at the College at 1000 and will participate in the panel discussion.

We shall be pleased to accept your invitation for lunch.

I am forwarding the completed requisites form and a brief biographic sketch.

If you have any further suggestions, please contact [redacted]

[redacted] who will be handling the arrangements for me. He can be reached on [redacted]

Sincerely,

R. E. Cushman, Jr.
R. E. Cushman, Jr.
